

Granary Cottage, Burnham Market

Last Updated Thursday, 17 September 2009

A traditional, charming cottage set in rural Burnham Market, Granary Cottage is the ideal base to explore North Norfolk. Just minutes away from Holkham, Wells-next-the-Sea, and Brancaster, Burnham Market is a lively, pleasant place to spend your holiday.

Granary Cottage has three large bedrooms, one with a king-size bed, one with a double and one with two singles, so there's room for everyone. There is a large open-plan lounge/dining room with comfy chairs and sofas, together with a TV, DVD, video and hi-fi system. The property is centrally heated throughout.

The kitchen has a electric cooker, microwave and fridge/freezer. There is a large bathroom with power shower, airing cupboard, washing machine and tumble dryer for your use.

Granary Cottage is on a quiet back road, away from the high street. Tucked away in a quiet corner of Burnham Market, it is totally self contained in its own grounds with private parking for 2 cars. The cottage has its own garden and facilities.

Whether you spend a weekend, a week or longer in North Norfolk, make Granary Cottage, Burnham Market your home from home.

Granary Cottage has received a 4 Star rating from the Tourist Board.
